

Survivor Specialist and Harmful Sexual Behavioural Specialists Wanted Wellington and South Island based (part time, three contractor roles)

21 December 2021

Project Restore is seeking three professionally confident clinicians to join our growing national team;

- A Harmful Sexual Behavioural Specialist (Wellington based)
- A Survivor Specialist (South Island based)
- A Harmful Sexual Behavioural Specialist (South Island based)

These roles will suit Specialists who are committed to our mission of restoring humanity, justice, and dignity where sexual harm has occurred and breaking the wider cycles of harmful sexual behaviour and violence now and for future generations.

About Us

Project Restore NZ (PRNZ) is the specialist national provider of restorative justice for sexual harm cases in Aotearoa. We have a contract with the Ministry of Justice to deliver restorative justice processes within the Criminal Justice System and the Community as an alternative justice process.

This provides great potential for Survivor healing and recovery and the person who caused the harm to be accountable.. We are implementing a long-term strategy which will grow our reach and impact, making this an exciting opportunity to have a very real, expanding and beneficial impact for Survivors.

About the Role

In these roles you can truly make a difference. Working collaboratively with the Project Restore Team to support survivors to experience acknowledgement and validation of their emotional, physical, spiritual responses as a result of the harm they have experienced.

This will be achieved by:

1. Assisting with the intake assessment, preparation and ongoing risk and safety assessments.
2. Providing clients with support and guidance in the restorative justice process as part of a team of caseworkers adopting the three-legged stool Project Restore NZ model.

3. Developing effective professional relationships and extending our community profile so as to contribute to and enhance the success of PRNZ's clinical services and of the organisation and its work.
4. In the process of conducting this work to promote and work towards a society that is free from sexual violence.

Survivor Specialist Role (up to 8 hours per week)

About You

As a minimum you will have;

- NZQA approved qualification in the field of counselling, social work, psychology or psychotherapy.
- Current full member of a professional counselling, social work, psychology, or psychotherapy body including a practicing certificate in relevant discipline e.g., counselling, psychotherapy, social work, or psychotherapy.
- Minimum four years clinical experience working with survivors of sexual violence (must have) and perpetrators of sexual harm (helpful).
- Minimum one year of experience working in collaborative roles with sexual violence sector agencies (Ideal)
- Ability to meet criteria and maintain Ministry of Justice restorative justice accreditation of Sexual Violence specialist – working with sexual offending cases. Induction and training will be given to support this.
- Knowledge of working within Ministry of Justice restorative justice standards for sexual violence cases, or existing accreditation as an RJ facilitator (helpful, but not essential – will be included in induction)
- Current driver's license and ownership of legal vehicle available for work use.
- Own computer capability and internet access at home.
- Own phone with internet access
- Able to travel (air and car) when required.
